

“Questions and Answers
on Embracing the Lotus Sutra”

“Jimyōhokke mondō shō”

1263 (Age 42)

If you seek to become a Buddha, you should lay down the banner of arrogance, cast away the stave of anger, and devote yourself solely to the one vehicle of the Lotus Sutra. Fame and honor are nothing more than decorations in this life. Arrogance and attachment to biased views are hindrances in attaining Buddhahood in your future existences. You should be ashamed of them. You should fear them.

(Gosho p.296 / Selected Gosho Passages p. 242)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji

“Questions and Answers
on Embracing the Lotus Sutra”

“Jimyōhokke mondō shō”

1263 (Age 42)

If you seek to become a Buddha, you should lay down the banner of arrogance, cast away the stave of anger, and devote yourself solely to the one vehicle of the Lotus Sutra. Fame and honor are nothing more than decorations in this life. Arrogance and attachment to biased views are hindrances in attaining Buddhahood in your future existences. You should be ashamed of them. You should fear them.

(Gosho p.296 / Selected Gosho Passages p. 242)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji