

Gosho Passage of the Month

August 2015

“A Sage and An Unenlightened Man (II)”

1268 (Age 47)

If only you chant Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo, then what offense could fail to be eradicated? What blessing could fail to come? This is the truth, and it is of great profundity. You should believe and accept it.

(“Shōgu mondō Shō” Gosho p.406/ ref. MW5-110)
