

“On Attaining Buddhahood”

1255 (Age 34)

Even a tarnished mirror will shine like a jewel when it is polished. Likewise, a mind that is presently clouded by illusions originating from the fundamental darkness of life is like a tarnished mirror. Yet, once it is polished, it will become a clear mirror of absolute truth. Arouse deep faith and polish your mirror night and day without neglect. How should you polish it? You should do so by single-mindedly chanting Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo.
