

“Reply to Toki”
(Dōjōshin shugo ji)

December 13, 1276 (Age 55)

Bodhisattva Nagarjuna interpreted the single character Myo of Myoho-Renge-Kyo in the Treatise on the Great Sutra on the Perfection of Wisdom (Dai chido-ron) as follows, “It is likened to an excellent physician skillfully turning poison into medicine.” The Great Teacher Tiantai stated, “It has been affirmed in the Lotus Sutra that people of the two vehicles will attain Buddhahood without fail. This signifies the doctrine of ‘turning poison into medicine.’” Even if calamities befall you, they will be turned into happiness.

(Gosho p. 1053 / Selected Gosho Passages p.226)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji

“Reply to Toki”
(Dōjōshin shugo ji)

December 13, 1276 (Age 55)

Bodhisattva Nagarjuna interpreted the single character Myo of Myoho-Renge-Kyo in the Treatise on the Great Sutra on the Perfection of Wisdom (Dai chido-ron) as follows, “It is likened to an excellent physician skillfully turning poison into medicine.” The Great Teacher Tiantai stated, “It has been affirmed in the Lotus Sutra that people of the two vehicles will attain Buddhahood without fail. This signifies the doctrine of ‘turning poison into medicine.’” Even if calamities befall you, they will be turned into happiness.

(Gosho p. 1053 / Selected Gosho Passages p.226)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji