

“Letter to Myōichi ama”
(Myōichi ama gozen-goshōsoku)

1275 (Age 54)

Those who maintain faith in the Lotus Sutra are as if in winter, but winter always turns to spring. Never, since ancient times, has anyone heard of or seen winter turn back to autumn. Nor have I heard of a believer in the Lotus Sutra turning back into a common mortal.

(Gosho p. 832 / Selected Gosho Passages p.48)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji

“Letter to Myōichi ama”
(Myōichi ama gozen-goshōsoku)

1275 (Age 54)

Those who maintain faith in the Lotus Sutra are as if in winter, but winter always turns to spring. Never, since ancient times, has anyone heard of or seen winter turn back to autumn. Nor have I heard of a believer in the Lotus Sutra turning back into a common mortal.

(Gosho p. 832 / Selected Gosho Passages p.48)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji