“Myōmitsu shōnin-goshōsoku”

March 5, 1276 (Age 55)

I have been chanting the Daimoku, the essence of the Lotus Sutra, myself, and encouraging others to do the same. The winding mugwort grows straight when it is planted in a hemp field. A crooked tree can be cut into straight lumber by following the sumi ink mark. Likewise, when you chant the Daimoku exactly as taught in the Lotus Sutra, your heart will never go astray.
