Even if Nichiren sincerely prays for you, if you do not have faith, it will be like trying to light a fire with wet tinder. Earnestly strive to muster your power of faith. Consider your life until now as having been phenomenal. Make certain to employ the strategy of the Lotus Sutra before any other tactics. The golden words, “You have been able to destroy all...who bore you enmity or malice,” should never be empty or false. The great essence of tactics and swordsmanship lies in Myoho-Renge-Kyo. Profoundly embrace this faith and practice. The prayers of a coward certainly will never come true.
