That which we call faith is not particularly exceptional. We should place our faith in the Lotus Sutra, Shakyamuni, Taho, and all the Buddhas, bodhisattvas, and guardian deities of the ten directions, and we should chant Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo, just as a wife cherishes her husband, as a man would give his life for his wife, as parents would never forsake their children, and as a child would never leave his mother's side. This is what we refer to as faith. Furthermore, you should be mindful of the sutra passages, "Honestly discarding expedient means" and "Not accepting a single verse of the other sutras," and never forsake them, just as a woman would never dispose of her mirror and a man would always carry his sword.
