

Gosho Passage of the Month January 2023
The Punishment of Exile to Sado Island
(Sado gokanki-sho)

Early October 1271 (Age 50)

I have believed that the path to becoming a Buddha entails encountering some great trial that will cause one to risk his life, and only then can he become a Buddha. Already, as the sutra expounds, I have been cursed and spoken ill of, assaulted with swords, staves, tiles, and stones, and banished from places again and again. That I have experienced these circumstances shows that I have read the Lotus Sutra [with my entire life]. Thus, my faith is all the more empowered and my conviction increases about my existences in the future.

(Gosho p. 482 / Nichiren Shoshu Monthly January 2023)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji

Gosho Passage of the Month January 2023
The Punishment of Exile to Sado Island
(Sado gokanki-sho)

Early October 1271 (Age 50)

I have believed that the path to becoming a Buddha entails encountering some great trial that will cause one to risk his life, and only then can he become a Buddha. Already, as the sutra expounds, I have been cursed and spoken ill of, assaulted with swords, staves, tiles, and stones, and banished from places again and again. That I have experienced these circumstances shows that I have read the Lotus Sutra [with my entire life]. Thus, my faith is all the more empowered and my conviction increases about my existences in the future.

(Gosho p. 482 / Nichiren Shoshu Monthly January 2023)

Nichiren Shoshu Myosenji