Single droplets of water accumulate to form the great seas. Specks of dust pile high to form Mount Sumeru. When I, Nichiren, initially took faith in the Lotus Sutra, I was like the first drop of water and the first particle of dust in the entire nation of Japan. When two, three, ten, then hundreds, thousands, ten thousand, and a hundred million people begin to chant the Lotus Sutra, they will form a Mount Sumeru of perfect enlightenment and the vast sea of great nirvana. You must not seek any other means to attain Buddhahood.
