

On Great Evil and Great Good
(Daiaku daizen-gosho)

1275 (Age 54)

Great events will not be preceded by small omens. When great evil occurs, great good will follow. Since immense slander already exists throughout the land, the supreme, true Law will definitely extend throughout the land. What causes you all to lament? Though you may not be the revered Mahakashyapa, you should dance for joy. Though you may not be Shariputra, you should stand up and dance. Bodhisattva Jogyo, as he emerged from the earth, danced joyfully. When Bodhisattva Universally Worthy made his advent, he caused the ground to shake in six different ways.
