Where there is water, fish will live. Where there are trees, birds will flock. Mount Penglai has many jewels, while sandalwood trees grow on Mount Malaya. Gold is found in the mountains from which the river Lishui flows. Now the same can be said of this place. This is where the Buddhas and bodhisattvas dwell, the cluster of merits and virtues. I spent many years here reciting the Lotus Sutra, whose merit is vaster than the sky. Because you visit this place often, year after year, the karmic offenses you have accumulated from time without beginning will definitely be eradicated within this lifetime. Put forth your utmost efforts in faith more than ever.
